How to apply and selection criteria

How to apply

Make sure you've read the full details about the 2025 Fellowships Program on the State Library Victoria website before applying.

You can submit applications in these formats through this SmartyGrants platform:

- Written
- Video
- Audio
- Auslan video (we can arrange interpretation of your video if needed - please contact us)

For each question you'll be able to choose to enter a written response or upload a file/ URL in your preferred format. Questions about contact details and data don't have the option for a file upload.

If you need to submit your application outside of SmartyGrants, contact us at least 5 days before the closing date. You may prefer to submit using a Microsoft Word document or another format for access reasons.

Selection criteria

We review applications in response to these four criteria:

- Creative merit

Indigenous Aboriginal Cultural Protocols

State Library Victoria Fellowships Program 2025

Form Preview

* indicates a required field

Indigenous Cultural Protocols

If your application has an Indigenous Aboriginal focus or content, you need to show a connection to the relevant communities.

This could be in the form of either:

- a letter of support from an Indigenous Aboriginal organisation.
- a joint fellowship application with an Indigenous applicant, if you're not Indigenous.

Once you have a letter of support, you'll also need to talk to the Victorian Indigenous Research Centre (VIRC) team at the Library before you apply. Make an appointment between Tuesday 4th February and Friday 21st March 2025 by contacting: VIRC Support Officer on 8664 7174 or by emailing the centre at virc@slv.vic.gov.au. This appointment must happen BEFORE submitting your application.

Observing and following cultural protocols is necessary to ensure the cultural integrity of a project.

Are you planning to access Australian Indigenous content at State Library Victoria? *

- Yes
 No

If Yes, attach a letter of support or contact information from the relevant Indigenous Aboriginal organisation you've consulted with in developing your proposal.

Regional and rural Victoria defined

The Victorian Government defines rural and regional Victoria as the 48 local government areas (LGAs), including six alpine resort areas, set out in Schedule 2 of the Regional Development Victoria Act 2002. There are 10 regional LGAs: Ballarat, Greater Bendigo, Greater Geelong, Greater Shepparton, Horsham, Latrobe, Mildura, Wangaratta, Warrnambool and Wodonga. The rural LGAs comprise the remaining 38 LGAs and the six alpine resort areas. More information is available here: <https://www.rdv.vic.gov.au/victorias-regions>

Are you based in regional or rural Victoria? *

Yes

Applicants not based in regional and rural Victoria are not eligible to apply for a Regional Fellowship.

Which Local Government Area (LGA) do you live in? *

Please note that the LGA you include here must be included in the Victorian Government-approved list.
